Taking Pride in Ourselves, Taking Pride in Our School!

23/07/2015

Dear Parents,

100 days celebration

The Prep students are always looking for a celebration, a party, a time to reflect and a time to congratulate teachers and their classmates on the achievements of their first ever 100 days at school.

You are cordially invited to the greatest 100 day celebration ever held at Gowrie State School.

WHEN: Friday, 7 August

WHERE: Prep class, Gowrie State School

TIME: 2:00 PM until 3:00 PM

Children will participate in a 30 minute disco with an invited DJ who was originally from England. (It's a Surprise)

There will be a decorated 100 days cup cake.

The day will be free dress!!!!!!

Children will be singing and dancing to entertain a loving audience.

(WARNING: You may need to bring your dancing shoes!)

The invitation to you will open numerous opportunities to celebrate this milestone.

Yours in education,

Adrienne Beckett
Prep Teacher

Linda Cox
Acting Principal
